

The Heracles Quiz

Name: _____

- Zeus made love to Alcmene after disguising himself as
A a lion C her husband
B an eagle D a horse
- What was remarkable about Heracles and his twin brother Iphicles?
A They had different mothers
B They had different fathers
C They were born 10 days apart
D Iphicles was half-man half-fish
- Who was one of the wives of Heracles?
A Aphrodite, the goddess of Love
B Hebe, the goddess of Youth
C Nemesis, the goddess of Retribution
D Ariadne, the daughter of King Minos
- Why did Heracles slew his own children?
A He was in love with another woman
B He was driven mad by Hera
C He wanted to become a king
D He was jealous of his children
- What did Heracles usually wear?
A A lion's skin
B Winged sandals
C A cloak
D A helmet
- How many Labours did Hercules have?
A 4 B 9 C 10 D 12
- With the accomplishment of the labours, Heracles
A would become a god and be granted immortality.
B would take the throne of Zeus.
C would marry Aphrodite, goddess of Beauty.
D would get his children back.
- Which of the following was NOT a labour of Heracles?
A Slay the Nemean Lion
B Slay the Stymphalian Birds
C Hurl the robber Sciron from a cliff
D Steal the golden apples of the Hesperides
- How did Heracles die?
A He was given a tunic with poisonous blood that tore his skin
B He was shot by arrows
C He was thrown into the sea
D He was eaten by a lion